

The American Corner in Pietermaritzburg commemorates Black History Month

In commemoration of Black History Month, the American Corner in Pietermaritzburg is showing a series of documentary films. Please join us as we commemorate this important occasion. This program is organized in partnership with the U.S. Consulate General in Durban and Msunduzi Municipality.

The American Corner is also hosting a poster show on African American history. The poster show will be on display until end of February.

The following films will be shown twice a day from 13h00 to 14h00 and 15h30 to 16h30.

Tuesday, February 08

African – Americans: Marching to Freedom

Friday, February 11

Let Freedom Sing: How Music Inspired the Civil Rights Movement

Tuesday, February 15

Martin Luther King Jr. Leading America to the Promised Land

Friday, February 18

Slavery and the Making of America: The Downward Spiral (Vol. 1)

Tuesday, February 22

Slavery and the Making of America: Liberty in the Air (Vol.2)

Friday, February 25

Slavery and the Making of America: Seeds of Destruction (Vol. 3)

Tuesday, March 1

Slavery and the Making of America: The Challenge of Freedom (Vol. 4)

For more information contact Busi Xulu at Busi.Xulu@msunduzi.gov.za or (033) 392 2683

The American Corner
Bessie Head Library
260 Church Street
Pietermaritzburg